Congress Library

For the very first time, a congress library will be part of the International PEN Congress and Literary Festival. The congress library will be accommodated in the Design Center Linz from Oct. 19th to Oct. 23rd, 2009. All registered participants have the opportunity to present up to three of their own books in the original language versions in the congress library. The participants are requested to bring the books to Linz and to the congress library. Please note that neither the Austrian PEN Centre, nor the Design Center assumes any liability for any loss, damage or theft.

In order to adequately showcase your work we ask you to send us a short biography of max. 500 characters in one of the four official PEN languages (German, English, French, Spanish) before 31 August 2009. The Austrian PEN Centre will then provide translations into at least one of the other three congress languages.

The Austrian PEN Centre is looking forward to your contributions!
